

DECEMBER SATELLITE MEETS IN HOLLYWOOD AGAIN!

On Saturday, December 29 we're meeting for our annual Goal-Setting get-together. Bring a list of your goals for 2008, and we'll brainstorm as to how to make them all come true.

Some people make "treasure maps", with pictures of their desires. Some glue together montages of pictures and words to remind them of their hopes for the future.

Be careful what you wish for! I clipped a generic red car out of a magazine and pasted it on my collage. I reached all my goals that year, and later when looking at the collage, there was the SAME car I'd purchased! Why did I paste on a Geo Prizm, just because it looked cute? Why didn't I go with a black Mercedes? Yes, be careful what you wish for!

GOAL-SETTING SATELLITE MEETING: Coffee Shop at Hollywood Roosevelt Hotel, on Hollywood Boulevard. Right across from the Chinese Theatre and Kodak Theatre. Look for the Intertel tee shirt with a logo.

Date: Saturday, Dec. 29, 2007

Time: 10:00 am

Place: Hollywood Roosevelt Hotel (park in Kodak Theatre complex parking lot and get your ticket validated later). I'm going to ride the Red Line and get off at the Hollywood and Highland station.

Dutch-treat coffee or breakfast. First one to arrive gets a free coffee or tea.

You may simply bring your list, or bring ideas to make your montage of goals to concentrate on during the year. Be sure to have in mind when the goal is to be completed.

GET READY FOR THE HOLIDAYS!

If your family asks you to submit your Santa List, why don't you put on it a hint to give you a check toward your cruise in 2008 to attend the Intertel AGA-at-Sea? A fare for an inside double is equal to just about a dozen trips to the local cinema to see a movie, with ticket, popcorn and drink. Better than getting another sweater, or that book you've already read.

AGA-at-Sea

We're going to depart from the Galveston pier on September 20 for a five-day cruise to the Yucatan Peninsula. We'll stop off at Progreso, to visit the famous Mayan archeological site, Chichen Itza, and then on to Cozumel, with more Mayan lore to experience.

To date we have 72 passengers signed up for this memorable gathering, and Intertel will receive a nice donation from Carnival Cruises for our treasury.

In this issue is an updated fare schedule. These fares will probably be the final ones, but one never knows, for when the next block of cabins reserved for Intertel is booked, rates will probably go up again. These prices are effective Nov. 10, 2007, and anyone who signed up before that gets the advantage of the earlier fare. Also, anyone who signs up as a cabin-mate in a cabin that is already reserved will be paying the earlier fare.

DO LOOK OVER THE FARE SCHEDULE AND SEND IN YOUR DEPOSIT TODAY! Tell your friends, neighbors, relatives, business associates - everyone - about this wonderful trip that is such an affordable vacation! Remember, ALL MEALS ARE INCLUDED! If we had scheduled the AGA in a hotel in 2008, the cost, with your AGA registration fee and all the meals you would buy, plus your hotel room, would be far more than the prices quoted here. THINK IT OVER! Make yourself a holiday gift of a trip to see famous Mayan ruins!
